

Read the text carefully and follow the instructions:

1. Read the entire text one time.
2. Read each paragraph and write down in your copybook all the present continuous sentences
3. Read the entire text again.
4. Write down the main idea of the text.
5. Answer the TRUE or FALSE questions and write it down correctly.

I am playing the guitar!

It's Monday morning and Patricia is in her bedroom. She is playing the guitar and singing some popular songs to her little sister, Tina. Tina is two years old, but she likes listening to music, specially when she's sleepy.

Patricia's mother is a housewife, so she is usually at home taking care of the house and the baby, but today she isn't at home. She is in the city doing some paper work. Tina is crying and suddenly, Patricia's cell phone rings:

- Hello??
- It's me, mum. How are you, Pat?
- We're just fine. Tina is almost sleeping and I'm playing the guitar for her. And you?
- I'm fine, too. I'm already driving home, but the traffic is terrible because of the weather. It's foggy and it's raining cats and dogs.
- What about Dad? Is he coming home today?
- Yes, he is at the airport right now. He's arriving home today...! See you in a minute, ok?

True (T) or False (F)?

1. It's Sunday morning.
2. Patricia is at school.
3. She's playing the guitar.
4. He has got a brother.
5. Patricia's mother is at home.
6. Patricia's mother is a doctor.
7. Tina is eating her soup.
8. The weather is fine.

<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>

Correct the false sentences.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____

"It's raining cats and dogs" at the end of the text; it's an idiom in English and it means that it is raining REALLY A LOT!!